Many children’s and teacher’s lives have been transformed through the teaching of the CMI curricula. This change is evident as they gain a desire to live in obedience to the Lord. This is just part of the CMI story. The full story of how God has changed the lives of children and their teachers who have responded to Him will not be known until Jesus returns.

Seminars for Equipping the Saints

CMI is committed to bring family life and teacher training seminars to any Christian church or group regardless of size, location, or denomination. Find out more about these Seminars on our web page: www.childministry.com.

The Covenant Family Life Seminar includes covenant marriage, parenting, child discipline and building a household of covenant faith. Also, potential marriage “battlegrounds,” distractions and worldly attitudes in every day life that keep us from fulfilling our covenant responsibilities are discussed.

The Teacher Training Seminar shows how we teach our flannelboard and catechetically based curriculum. Teachers are instructed in how to assemble and use the flannelboard visual aids for more effective teaching.
